

Ian Adams
Chief Executive
IBIA

Ian Adams has been involved in the Shipping Industry since 1985 when he joined P&O Cruises as an Engineering Cadet. Whilst with P&O Cruises he served both at sea and in the Technical Department.

After a brief spell in the Petrochemical Industry he returned to the Marine Industry as a service engineer with Deep Sea Seals, overseeing the installation of stern seals in dry-docks all over the world.

Ian then joined Hamworthy KSE as a Sales Executive, responsible for Sales in the UK, Greece and latterly Cyprus.

Ian was appointed Chief Executive of The International Bunker Industry Association, UK, in February 2009, after having been its Secretary-General for seven and a half years.

Ian is a Fellow of the Institute of Marine Engineering Science and Technology, he has served as a Council Member, and is a Vice President of the Southern Joint Branch (UK).